■ ^ 12195. SHRI S. W. DHABE: Will the Minister of LABOUR be pleased to state:

(a) what progress has been made in the implementation of minimum wages for rural labourers under the 20-Point Programme during the years 1983-84 end 1984-85 in various States;

(b) whether any study has been made regarding the implementation Of minimum wages; and

(c) what are the main reasons for its tardy implementaition?

■{•Previously Unstai^red Question 1860, transferred from the 13th. March, 1986.

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR (SHRI P. A. SANGMA): (a) According to lavfai|able irrBor^ation all the State Governments/Union Territory Administrations which have fixed minimum wages in respect of agricultural labourers under the Act have revised the minimum wages in respect of agricultural workers at least once since 1980. In some States/Union. Territories^ minimum wages have been revised more then once during this period. The Central Government has revised the minimum wages in respect of agricultural labourers on 5 occasions since 1980. The last revision was made on tha 12th February, 1985.

(b) The Labour Bureau has made evaluation studies on minimum wages in respect of Bihar, Gujarat, Rajasthan and Karnataka,

(c) The Studies reveal that ignorance of employers and. labourers about the Minimum Wages Act, 1948, lack 'of security and facilities to the enfor cement machinery, shortage of inspec ting staff and lack of co-operation both from the employers as well as labourers to the inspecting staff in rural ai-eas are some of the causes which hamper the progress of imple. mentation.
